|---------------|--|--------------|
| BIN 21 | SANCERRE DOMAINE DAULNY, Loire, France
With our bias towards great seafood a classic Sancerre is a must. Extremely elegant and delicate, The enticing bouquet is checked by fresh, herbaceous floral notes that pass seamlessly onto the palate Where they expand to deliver green sappy notes and a zesty lingering finish. | 30 |
| BIN 22 | RUSTENBERG CHARDONNAY Stellenbosch, South Africa
Very much in the wood influenced White Burgundy style; weighty toasty vanilla notes, hints of marzipan, orange peel and waxy old vine complexity... and enhanced further by a welcome zesty glow to help balance the 12 months spent in oak | 38 |
| BIN 23 | MACON CHARDONNAY TALMARD Burgundy
The very epitome of a beautifully made and balanced white Burgundy. Clean dry fruit, touches of apple, melon and dry honey finishing with gentle lemon. Uncomplicated and unwooded... highly recommended. | 33 |
| BIN 24 | PASK PINOT NOIR Vine Velvet Marlborough New Zealand.
Light in colour, and initially not too heavy on the pallet. Gentle wild strawberry ,hint of Cherry and damson and subtle touch of truffle. Reminiscent to a well-aged Classic Burgundy. | 34 |
| BIN 25 | CHATEAU CISSAC. Cru Bourgeoise Haut Medoc.
Totally dependable Claret, Cabernet Sauvignon dominant, topped up by Merlot and lesser Amounts of Petit Verdot enhanced by 18 months in oak . Ripe cassis, scented cigar box wood notes, slightly perfumed and dark chocolate spicy finishing glow. | 48 |
| BIN 26 | NEETHLINGSHOF ESTATE PINOTAGE, Stellenbosch, South Africa
Pinotage as it should be! Big brooding and complex, old vine ripe fruit, voluptuous damson, figgy notes, sweet cherry... and a funky woody glow. A rare treat! | 37 |
| BIN 27 | PETITE IMMORTELLE Cotes du Roussillon
The very essence of rustic Southern France, vibrant ,herbaceous and well-structured without any unwelcome and unnecessary wood. A harmonious blend of Grenache, Mourvedre and Syrah. Another terrific wine by Liam Steevenson, Master of Wine, our merchant's son. | 28 |
| BIN 28 | CEU NA TERRA ALVARINHO, Portugal
A new concept in wine making, translates into 'Heaven on Earth', the aim to reflect purity of fruit And always exciting and invigorating fresh acidity. Overtones of peach, orange blossom and pear, Climaxing with a tight lemon tang and complex texture. | 39.50 |

And finally, something to round off your meal...
